

“...whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever:
nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it...” (Ecclesiastes 3:14)

Do we have the perfect Word of God in English?

Download this document and your FREE book at:
www.Bibleversiontruth.com

Do you know if God allowed His Word (or any part of it that He truly said and meant) to get lost through hundreds of years of copying and the translation process, He would not be faithful? This act of allowing His Word to get lost would be an INTENTIONAL act of unfaithfulness because of who our God is and His great and mighty powers: the power to keep it preserved throughout history just by simply speaking it. Think about it: we cannot be held accountable to it, if it (or any part of it) got lost. (John 12:48) We would then be able...

The Bible said, “Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.”
(Amos 8:11)

These days are NOW!

Introduction

<sup>1</sup>The information below was taken from Chapter 9 in the FREE downloadable book called The Untold History of your English

Bible & Which of these Bibles is God's Word?

A promise to you from GOD:

To all ye inhabitants of the world,
and dwellers on the earth.

If I “commanded!” words to a thousand generations (Deuteronomy 7:9; 1 Chronicles 16:15; Psalm 105:8), do you think those words will get lost or go missing? Haven't I then promised to preserve My Word throughout the generations and forever? (Psalm 12:6-7). Is this too hard for Me to do? (Jeremiah 32:17, 27). Can you prove I didn't? If I didn't, then you have a case against Me in the courtroom of “My” Holy presence. (Job 23:3-7; Isaiah 45:11; Micah 6:3). This will surely “never” happen because I, GOD, I Am, the Word! (Exodus 3:14; John 1:1, 8:58, 12:48; Rev. 19:13).

If My Word or any part of it can get lost or go missing, then I too can also get lost or go missing. Do you believe scholars who say “this” and “that” are lost or missing from My Word, or do you believe Me? (Psalm 56:5). Choose between the two: your scholars or Me: The Word! Haven't I spoken and it was done? Haven't I commanded, and it stood fast? (Ps. 33:9, 148:2-5; Is. 14:24). Investigate Me! Can I or any part of Me get lost or go missing?

Scrutinize the history of My Word, all conflicting sides, and you will find Me! (Is. 34:16). But take heed, lest ye despise My Word and therefore despise Me! (Num. 15:31; Is. 5:24, 30:12-13; Mark 8:38; Heb. 3:12).

For hundreds of years, I chose Hebrew “ONLY” to write, preserve, and carry My Word around the world to all ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth. (1 Kings 8:41-43; 2 Chr. 6:32-33, 9:23, 20:29; Ps. 46:10; Is. 18:3). Afterward, I used Greek and Latin. So then, couldn't I use any language “ONLY” (or languages) to do the same? Remember that I am the Word!

Search the Scriptures: When “the word of the LORD said” (or “the word of the LORD came unto me, saying”), that was Me, the Word, speaking. When “the words of the LORD said” (or “the LORD hath spoken”), that was what I had already said. I, the Word, was there in the beginning with God and was GOD! (Genesis 1:1; John 1:1). So then, read all of Me! Every word! (Matt. 4:4). Feed on Me! (John 6:33-58).

All of your information regarding Me, the Word, came from three sources: books, teachers, and your very own personal experiences. You then, personally and by yourself, along with influence from others, choose which of the information you will believe and accept as truth. Remember that I am the truth! (Deut. 32:4; John 14:6).

Ask Me “first” to steer your thoughts, then carefully and cautiously, by yourself, examine the sources I will send you, and you WILL find Me! (Deut. 30:11-14). My Word is alive (John 6:63), intact, and is within your reach. Today! Even NOW! Search for Me! (Jer. 29:13).

Psalm 12:6-7, 33:11, 100:5, 119:89, 160, 138:2; Ecc. 3:14; Is. 40:8; Matt. 4:4, 24:35; Mark 13:31; Luke 21:33; Heb. 10:7, and 1 Peter 1:23, 25. So then, you can believe Num. 23:19; Is. 14:24, 27; Jer. 32:17, 27. Otherwise, Rom. 14:23; Heb. 10:38, and 11:6.

<sup>2</sup>Should we accept “FACTS” or FAITH? What can we see, or what cannot be seen? A seen promise or an unseen promise? The possible or the impossible? Is seeing believing according to man, or believing is seeing according to God? Therefore, should we believe God or should we believe man?

<sup>3</sup>Men say that no translation can be a perfect reproduction of the original. However, God said that He will preserve His words from generation to generation (and forever), with nothing missing, and they will go forth into all countries of the world. Thus, His words must be with us today, intact and without error.

So then, whom shall we believe? Men or what God said in Psalm 12:6-7 and Matthew 24:35?

ONE

If God said what He did at:

4 Psalm 12:6-7

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

5 Psalm 33:11

The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

6 Psalm 100:5

For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

7 Psalm 119:89

For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.

8 Psalm 119:160

Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

9 Psalm 138:2

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

10 Ecclesiastes 3:14

...whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

11 Isaiah 40:8

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

12 Matthew 4:4

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

13 Matthew 24:35

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

14 Mark 13:31

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

15 Luke 21:33

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

16 Hebrews 10:7

Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

17 1 Peter 1:23-25

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

PRAISE THE LORD! WE CAN THEN BELIEVE THE FOLLOWING:

17 Numbers 23:19

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? Or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

18 Isaiah 14:24, 27

The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand...For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? And his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

19 Jeremiah 32:17, 27

Ah Lord GOD! Behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee...Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

Thus, or otherwise:

20 Romans 14:23

...not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

21 Hebrews 10:38

Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

22 Hebrews 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

TWO

<sup>23</sup>Do we have an English translation today that is a perfect reproduction of the Hebrew and Greek texts God passed down through generations to us? Do you know of any English Bible in full use today that can be found in just about every English-speaking Christian home?

<sup>24</sup>Which Bible version was used during the great modern missionary movement which English-speaking missionaries carried the gospel around the world? Which Bible Christians gave their lives protecting many years ago? Which Bible was used to help establish laws, status, standards, etc., in England, America, and the rest of the world? Which Bible has sold more copies than any other book for hundreds of years to date? Which version was used very late into the nineteenth century, which was believed and accepted as the common Bible at home, in public schools, government functions, Christian colleges, and seminaries? The only Bible that qualifies in all the above is the Authorized King James Version.

<sup>25</sup>The King James Version is the only English translation after 1611 that has greatly affected the lives and direction of millions of people since English grammar was standardized for over four hundred years, and no other English translation has done that. It is the only English translation that took out the apostate church, causing a serious “deadly wound,” weakening its power-grip from their “slaughtering Christians” campaign. (Read “History of your English Bible” earlier in this book, and please note that the Beast in Revelation 13:14 received its “wound by a sword, and did live.” The sword is “the Word of God” at Ephesians 6:17).

<sup>26</sup>What do you think made the Authorized King James Version so popular? God must have given His stamp of approval with a powerful supernatural force behind the actual words of the text (John 6:63). This book, therefore, became the greatest book ever printed. Can you imagine the intense grief placed on the devil because of this holy book? Hence, because he cannot destroy it (according to God’s promise), we are sure that Satan’s number one priority was to crush our faith in it.

<sup>27</sup>In today’s war, the most important thing (no doubt the first thing) an army does to its enemy is to destroy the abilities of the enemy to communicate effectively with each other. It does not matter how large and powerful an army is because if it never gets the order to attack, it is useless. The army would become blind, deaf, and dumb because of a lack of communication or confidence in the communications. Can you imagine then how important it is for Satan to try and destroy God’s Word and man’s confidence in it?

<sup>28</sup>Satan is a master counterfeiter. Do you think he will design a Bible-text battle plan that can easily be traced back to him? Do you think he is silly enough to use something that may not work? Satan uses the best resources available. Before you figure out what hit you, it will all be over and too late. The damage would have already been done. His plans will be so sophisticated that the only thing preventing us from being deceived is complete “BLIND FAITH” in the promises of God’s Word.

Satan’s Missing Verses Strategy

Satan intentionally included missing verses in his Bible to create long-lasting “no-confidence of doubt” in the preservation of God’s Word. If doubt is created with any ONE SINGLE verse in the scriptures, then the doctrine of preserving God’s Word will collapse in the mind of the individual. If Satan can maintain and sustain this no-confident perception in the communication of God’s Word, then he has successfully accomplished his blind, deaf, and dumb mission amongst Christian soldiers. Therefore, missing verses must visually remain in Satan’s Bible for future generations to assist in accomplishing his goals of Isaiah 14:13-14.

<sup>29</sup>Remember what Matthew 24:24 and Mark 13:22 said? Look at what Satan can do in Revelation chapter 13: he will deceive the whole world. Today, look at what he has achieved so far. Many of us have accepted it: most scholars, preachers, teachers, etc., believe that no Bible version is the perfect word of God.

<sup>30</sup>In our spiritual war, look at how Satan has most of us Christians thinking today: “Which text is closest to the originals?” “Which manuscripts are the most reliable?” “Do we have a perfect Bible in English today?” “We have the Bible, but it isn’t in any single English version.” “Any version of the Bible is only the word of God where it has been correctly translated.” “Which English Bible has been correctly translated? Does one exist?” People also say that “the KJB is the best or nearest English translation to the original, but it too has some errors.”

<sup>31</sup>Did you know these confusing questions did not exist until after the Revision Committee’s 1871 “Big Betrayal” in England? (Read “History of your English Bible” in Chapter One of this book).

<sup>32</sup>Unfortunately, and very sad, many pastors and ministers of the gospel today publicly claim that the Bible is the perfect word of God, but in their private studies, among their pairs, and in their hearts, they deny it. Satan, therefore, has successfully destroyed many Christians’ confidence in God’s Word, thus hindering God from effectively communicating with us through it.

<sup>33</sup>As was mentioned earlier, there are only two text families or sources from which all our Bible versions come. The KJV came from one of these sources, and all modern versions come from the other source. Have we ever taken notice? Isn’t it interesting and bizarre that we do not have another English version with us today that is as popular and comes from the same Hebrew and Greek text and consulted sources used by the King James Version translators? If we do, then where is it? Look into the average home and see if it is there.

<sup>34</sup>Certainly, we have with us today the Tyndale Bible, the Coverdale Bible, the Great Bible, the Matthew’s Bible, the Bishop’s Bible, etc., all coming from the underground Christian text, but where are they? If we look into the average English-speaking Christian home (no doubt, most English-speaking homes today), which Bible most likely would be found on the shelf? The answer is a King James Version Bible. There are many other modern English versions that may be found, all coming from other Hebrew and Greek sources. However, they are filled with many missing verses, altered readings, and erroneous footnotes claiming that not all verses are found in the earliest or oldest manuscripts.

God gave us ONE Bible in different languages around the world, but Satan gave us many Bibles. The Almighty gave us Himself as ONE God to worship, but Satan gave us many gods to worship. God usually sends an individual messenger to deliver His words, but Satan sends many messengers (I Kings 18:19-22; II Chronicles 18:4-7, etc.).

<sup>35</sup>In a court of law, verbal statements can scarcely be proven, but written words can. One of the most powerful pieces of evidence in a courtroom is physical or real evidence. Physical or real evidence is much more powerful than eyewitness or spoken evidence. Thus, when God decided to put His words in writing, He made an irreversible decision. We can hold God to His Word in the courtroom of His presence. Once those words have been written, they are irrevocable ([1], page 17). God must love us and truly desire for us to have His words and be sure of them by putting them in written form. Psalm 138:2 says: “For thou hast magnified thy Word above thy name.”

<sup>36</sup>Now, do you think God would give His original words only to those early writers and then lose them many years later? Do you think He would allow His words to be corrupted with heretical teachings and then write them in a language that only a few can speak and translate into other languages? (Remember the gift of tongues in the Book of Acts? Many Christians spoke several different languages FLUENTLY).

<sup>37</sup>What if those original words written by the authors were the only perfect words God gave us, but are now passed off the scene? What if it was impossible for us today to obtain those original words? Why, then, would God inspire His original words (or write a perfect book) and then allow them to be lost or allow them to be later filled with mistakes, false teachings, counterfeit passages, and doubtful readings? He is “too” powerful to allow this to happen. God can just speak, and His words will survive from the beginning until the end of time, intact and without error. Therefore, this is not consistent with God’s nature. What good is there in inspiring a book that is not preserved free from error through history? In fact, to inspire His Word perfectly in the originals and then lose it somewhere in history would have been a waste of God’s time. How can we hold God to His words if He allowed them to get lost hundreds of years ago?

<sup>38</sup>This would be like an untrustworthy or unfaithful business partner allowing forgery,

changing a legal contract, or intentionally allowing the contract to get lost or be destroyed because of greed, deceit, selfishness, or unfaithfulness. The partners would no longer have any written contractual evidence with binding agreements. Thus, neither partner can be held liable for breach of contractual agreements in a court of law. (Do you think this same type of breach will surface in God's courtroom?). This is not God's character (or attribute). He is not afraid of us holding Him to His written words; therefore, why should He allow them to get lost?

Do you know if God allowed His Word (or any part of it that He truly said and meant) to get lost through hundreds of years of copying and the translation process, He would not be faithful? This act of allowing His Word to get lost would be an INTENTIONAL act of unfaithfulness because of who He is and His great and mighty powers: the power to keep it preserved throughout history just by simply speaking it. Think about it: we cannot be held accountable if it (or any part of it) got lost. We would then be able to present strong arguments in our defense in the courtroom of God's presence for what is and was not found in all Bible versions, including those that point to Satan as God ([1], pages 15-32).

<sup>39</sup>If you do not believe God preserved His words for us today, what this really and truly implies is that He cannot and did not do what He said He would do with them. This mindset is very dangerous because Scripture verses prove that He said He will preserve all of them. Look at the simple mistake Moses made that caused him an excruciating loss in Numbers 20:12. Notice carefully what the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron: "...Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them."

<sup>40</sup>In other words, because Moses did not believe God's specific instruction (Numbers 20:7-8), he did not sanctify (glorify, proclaim, or preach) God's unadulterated and perfect Word among the people (because of his unbelief). For this reason, he lost one of the greatest blessings all Israel looked forward to receiving at the time: entering into the Promised Land. This is a very serious warning lesson for us today. It shows that no matter where we are spiritually, God is no respecter of persons. We all know the conclusion of this story: even though Moses unsuccessfully begged God to reconsider His judgment, he paid dearly for his error—the error and sin of unbelief (Rom. 14:23; Heb. 10:38, 11:6).

<sup>40</sup>Psalms 12:6-7 says: "The words of the LORD are pure words...Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." Psalm 100:5 says: "...his truth endureth to all generations." Jesus Christ said in Matthew 24:35, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Jeremiah 32:17 and 27 says: "Ah Lord GOD! Behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee." Should we then believe what God said or what men say? If Jesus Christ said what He did in Matthew 24:35, strengthening Psalm 12:7, then God's Word must be here with us today, within our reach.

The conclusion of the matter really is that God has wasted His time if He did not preserve ALL His inspired words for us today as He promised He would. Also, to believe that He did waste His time because we do not have ALL His words with us today is FOOLISH! ([1], page 22).

<sup>41</sup>This writer is truly convinced from investigations of historical evidence, scientific evidence, and logical conclusions mentioned in this book that the Hebrew and Greek texts used by the King James Version translators from the underground Christian Bible were passed down to us over hundreds of years by God. Therefore, the question really is: do we have a perfect reproduction of this Hebrew and Greek text in English, exactly how God wanted it to be?

<sup>42</sup>The English of the King James Bible was in its purest form in 1611. Psalm 12:6 says:

"The words of the Lord are pure words," not the degenerated vocabulary of today. God is a God of purity, and everything about Him is pure. Therefore, if He wanted to use a tool that would be the vehicle to carry His words to the world, it, too, must be pure. God also knew that in a few hundred years after 1611, English would be the world's universal language. Today, we see that in every discipline around the world, if you don't speak English, you will not get very far in becoming an international success. This is seen as prevalent even in the business world: in China and all of Asia, in Russia, India, Europe, Middle Eastern countries, Africa, etc. English is dominating all the languages of the world. Thus, the English of the King James Bible is known to be the finest form of the English language ever used.

As mentioned earlier, there is a big difference between someone who learned a foreign language in the classroom and someone God gifted to speak the language in a vernacular way, including all the idioms and tongue-twisting pronunciations. Think about it: when scholars speak their "learned-in-the-classroom" language, the natives immediately know they are foreign. When God gifted individuals with the ability to speak other languages, the natives cannot tell if the person is foreign. God gifted several of the KJV translators who were never taught the language in the classroom. Therefore, if any English word choices strayed from the author's (God's) original intent, they would have immediately recognized it.

<sup>43</sup>There are people who question why the translators did not use the word "temple" (which is "rightly" translated from the Greek) but instead used the English word "church" (Acts 19:37). Why not use the word "Passover" (which is also "rightly" translated from the Greek) but instead used the English word "Easter" (Acts 12:4). In addition, why did the translators use "baptism" for "immersion," "schoolmaster" for "attendant," "sweet savour" for "soothing aroma," "God save the king" for "May the king live," and "God forbid" for "may it not be?"

<sup>44</sup>Dishonest Bible scholars claim that the Greek word cannot be translated in two different ways, as seen in the KJV. They make this claim ONLY when it occurs in the KJV. However, these same critics are silent when modern versions do the very same thing. They create their prejudice and jealous standards of "correcting" the KJV, but will not apply the same rules and standards when they appear in modern versions. For example, using the same Greek word in the NASV, "fall away" in Matthew 26:31 is changed to "stumble" in I Corinthians 8:13. "Sky" in Acts 1:10 changed to "heaven" in II Corinthians 12:2, and so on.

<sup>45</sup>Can anyone explain God's Sovereignty? Can anyone explain how "an evil spirit from the LORD" came and afflicted King Saul? (I Samuel 16:14). Can anyone explain how God authorized a spirit to go and lie "in the mouth of" all of Ahab's prophets? ("...the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee" II Chronicles 18:22). Can anyone explain how it is with God that because He was angry at Israel, "he moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah" (II Samuel 24:1). But, "...Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel" (I Chronicles 21:1). Israel was severely punished. Seventy thousand men died. Satan, no doubt, did not know that he was being used to carry out God's wishes. Can anyone explain God's all-knowingness? When King Solomon's heart turned away from Him and he began worshiping idols, God had already stirred up adversaries towards King Solomon long before he became the King (I Kings 11:14-40). For King Solomon's punishment, the nation of Israel was divided into two. (Our God is so powerful that He can clearly hear and see "infinitely well" into the future. Also, answers to our prayers were already built into His creations before the foundation of the world).

<sup>46</sup>Supposing when you stand before God, He says to you, "I selected those words in English, not the KJV translators, because they truly say what I mean and mean what I say!" Do you think that would be the time to use words like "but," "how," "why," "when," etc? God said in Proverbs 3:5, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding.” Another way of saying this is: lean not unto thine own knowledge, skills, thoughts, learning, teachings, discoveries, findings, research, or analytical views. Just trust God!

<sup>47</sup>No one has all the answers to Bible questions. To have all the correct answers to Bible questions, we would then be God. Secondly, if we got all our questions answered, we would then walk by sight and not by faith (Hebrews 11:6; II Corinthians 5:7). We will not have any need to take a leap of faith, including the belief in God, whom we have never seen. Our Christian faith is not built on things that are carnal or can be seen and explained. It is built on blind faith. As Dr. Samuel C. Gipp, author of The Answer Book, said on page 157 of his book, God would rather we have faith in Him in the face of the unexplainable, as so many of the Old and New Testament saints have exhibited, than to have faith in our own human ability to “find an answer” concerning every difficult passage.

<sup>48</sup>Somehow, it appears that we humans corrupt ourselves quicker when we live and walk by sight instead of blind faith. For proof of this, look at what the children of Israel did. After coming out of Egypt, walking through the wilderness, and actually seeing God’s mighty power at work, they greatly corrupted themselves many times by sinning against God and having a serious lack of faith in Him.

<sup>49</sup>Just like how we have never seen God, but yet we believe in Him because of all the visible evidence in His creation, and we accept books that were written about Him:

So then, why can’t we believe and accept as facts that the King James Version is an accurate English translation of the inspired, infallible text God wanted us to have?

<sup>50</sup>This belief must be accepted by faith. Remember what doubting Thomas said, “Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe” (John 20:25). KJV critics, in essence, say the same thing: that if we cannot see, explain, handle, or touch the originals (the word of God), then we will not believe that His words are alive and very much preserved today. (Keep in mind that Jesus Christ is the Word—John 1:1, 10, 14). Jesus Christ is still saying today, “...be not faithless, but believing...blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.”

<sup>51</sup>Do not be like doubting Thomas! If the KJV is not God’s preserved text (intact and without error), then it is up to you, the reader, to find the book that God was talking about in Psalm 12:6, 7 and what Jesus Christ spoke about in Matthew 24:35. This is because it must be within our reach or with us today, according to God’s Word.

<sup>52</sup>Imagine standing before God, and the King James Version Bible appears before you (Jesus Christ is the Word), and says, “Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side...because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed...” (John 20:27, 29)

<sup>53</sup>Finally, men just love correcting God’s grammar, even our very own Christian brothers and sisters who follow the natural ways of the world. Read what Paul had to say about God’s methods of speaking to us in I Corinthians 1:18-31 to 2:1-16. Does God use incorrect or poor grammar to convey a message or thought in His Word? God can and does anything He pleases. Modern-day scholars and grammarians, using their “learned-in-the-classroom” skills, change and modify words and verses in the Bible to convey how they want or believe the text should be read. (They will all one day answer for this in the courtroom of God’s Holy presence).

<sup>54</sup>Remember what Satan did in Genesis 3:4: he changed (“corrected”) what God said by adding the word “not” to God’s instructions in Genesis 2:17 (“thou shalt surely die” changed to “ye shall NOT surely die”).

<sup>55</sup>In conclusion, we know that [a] The King James Version is a very accurate, word-for-word translation from the Hebrew and Greek sources passed down to us from God. (Read “Translation Techniques And The $25,000,000.00 Question” above). [b] There is no other English translation from the same Hebrew and Greek sources used by the KJV translators with us today that can be found in just about every English-speaking Christian home (no doubt, every English-speaking home). [c] The English of the King James Bible is in its purest form, and Psalm 12:6 says: "The words of the LORD are pure words." [d] God promised that He WOULD preserve His words throughout all generations and forever. All the modern versions, including the NKJV, deny the preservation of God's Word. [e] God is "All-Powerful," and nothing is too hard for Him. His power can preserve anything. He spoke things into existence (like the heavens, the earth, the sun, the moon, water, etc.), and we are still here today. Let us then "walk by faith, not by sight" (II Corinthians 5:7).

<sup>56</sup>As mentioned earlier in this book, if our salvation is solely based on faith alone in God's Word, shouldn't we have the same faith in God that He will do what He said He would do with His Word? After all, the Scripture says, "Whatsoever is not of faith is sin" (Rom. 14:23). "...without faith it is impossible to please him" (Heb. 11:6), and "The just shall live by faith" (Heb. 10:38).

Please note that this author is not suggesting that the King James Version is the ONLY text God preserved. What is meant here is that even though God used other languages to preserve and carry His Word to the people, the KJV is the "vehicle" God used to carry His Word to English-speaking nations. Thus, His Word can be found intact and without error in many other languages (French, Italian, Spanish, German, etc.).

<sup>57</sup>Some of the views in this section came from "Gipp's Understandable History of the Bible," [1a].

QUESTIONS

- (1) Have you read the defending side of the King James Version only users? There are numerous books available on this subject.
- (2) Have you opened your mind ONLY to the side of LOST 1800 century Bible scholars who did not believe many fundamental doctrines of the Bible as you do?
- (3) Why do you HATE the King James Version (the Written Word like they did the Spoken Word) so much without a cause? Have you investigated the supposed "errors" that were shown to you by LOST Bible scholars?
- (4) How will you get away with this twisted ONE-SIDED reasoning when you stand before God in the courtroom of His Holy presence?
- (5) Are you a Scholarship ONLY advocate, or are you a King James Bible Version ONLY Christian?
- (6) Have you lost faith in God, believing He did what He said He would do with His Word?
- (7) Seriously, which Bible today help builds faith: The modern versions with all their missing and uncertain verses or the King James Version?

Follow the arrows to your Bible

God's Word

Scholars deceptively tried adding a third group of manuscripts called The Western family

<sup>58</sup> Greek scholar Johann Jakob Griesbach (1745-1812), who brought textual criticism into the modern era, tried cataloging manuscripts, erroneously adding a third group of manuscripts called “the Western family” to the ONLY two historically established texts known for almost fifteen hundred years as the Byzantine and Alexandrian text families. Scholars today using Griesbach’s work, employed this

“Western” text ideology only to remove the connotation perception on the significant “two source order” between good and evil, God and Satan, Byzantine and Alexandrian, light and darkness, truth and error, the right way and the wrong way. Adding this third factitious source covers up the two-source order perception, making “the right way” or “the right one” more difficult to track from “the wrong way” or “the wrong one.” Any common-sense individual can clearly see why a third group was necessary, or had to be created among crooked modern-day scholars. However, even though they tried inserting this third family (for obvious dishonest reasons), there is no proof that a Western family exist. Even Kurt and Barbara Aland, respected advocates of textual criticism, pointed out that Griesbach’s “influence should not be overemphasized since his critical theories have been proven inadequate.” (See “A Visual History of the English Bible,” by Donald L. Brake, page 242, with its reference pointing to: Kurt and Barbara Aland, The Text of the New Testament, Grand Rapids, Eerdmans, 1987, page 9) Griesbach’s plan was ONLY to ultimately bring about the downfall of Stephanus’s Textus Receptus. (“A Visual History...,” page 243)

Desiderius Erasmus, (1466-1536) viciously attacked by historian pit-bulls!

Four hundred of Ahab’s prophets gave their “divine revelation approval” to go and defeat the enemies. However, ONE man, of whom Ahab hated, warned of what awaits him if he goes. Thanks to Ahab’s stubborn, rebellious and arrogant attitude, he accepted the lethal counsel from the 400 false guides and lost his own life as a result. God’s Word many times comes from single messengers, amid a multitude of professional and very “knowledgeable” worldly counselors. (1 Kings 22:2-38) Today, there are literally hundreds of modern versions, all from the Latin Vulgate text compared to or competing with the King James Bible that came from the Old Itala Bible Manuscript. Textual critics hate the KJV and will do anything to see its demise.

<sup>60</sup> Desiderius Erasmus, one of the world’s greatest scholars, spent almost forty years (40) of his life combing libraries across Europe, secretly translating the Old Itala Bible manuscript (Latin) to Greek; thus, building his Greek New Testament text. What he was doing in secret was very dangerous for him and all the people who worked on the project. Any leak would have brought about a painful death to the entire team. It was a criminal offense to translate any unauthorized text not sanctioned by the official church at the time. When Erasmus’ Greek Text surfaced, a massive number of people began leaving the apostate church. Erasmus rejected the Latin Vulgate and embraced the Christian text, the Old Itala Bible manuscripts and translated it into his Greek New Testament text. For this reason, the apostate church unleashed a pack of historian pit-bulls (scholars) after him.

<sup>61</sup> When word got out that Erasmus’ Greek text went to the printers and thousands of books produced were secretly distributed and sold to the public, the apostate church quickly went into action and began destroying libraries across Europe.

<sup>62</sup> Thinking that their arson rampage was a successful solution, to their shocking surprise, Erasmus’ Greek text was “energy fuel” for the unstoppable reformation “freight train” that began blasting forward. (It was “fuel” thrown on the “reformation small fire” that caused a massive explosion of exodus among apostate church followers.) His Greek text was produced in very large numbers and sold in the thousands. The apostate church was then powerless to cap this massive flow, even after “The Inquisition” was placed in high gear as a result.

Read in the FREE book download about: (1) The objective of Erasmus’ enemies exposed. (2) The conflicting editions of Erasmus accompanied works and interpretation of the textual critic’s subtle rhetoric. (3) The time Erasmus took to secretly build his Greek New Testament text, and which Bible manuscript he used? (4) How was Erasmus allowed to examine manuscripts across Europe, and why did they not kill him? (5) Erasmus’s painful task of examining confiscated Bible manuscripts is illustrated. (6) Erasmus’ enemies (historian scholars) pit-bull attack explained. And (7) The “famous” missing Johann Comma (1 John 5:7) is explained.

Did you know there are two conflicting accounts of Erasmus’ life and work?

<sup>59</sup> Did you know there are two schools of editors that produced scholarship work on Erasmus? One of them was written by enemies (liberals) and the other by conservative authors. The goal by his enemies was to bulldoze his Greek text and anyone who came to his defense. His Greek text later became known as the Textus Receptus, a Latin term meaning “Received text.”

NOTES

[illegible][illegible]

Download your FREE book from www.Bibleversiontruth.com for answers to the following questions: Are "archaic" words in the KJV outdated or dead? Can we trust our scholars and their Hebrew & Greek dictionaries and Lexicons? Do we have the perfect Word of God in English? Is there any scientific evidence of inspiration and preservation of God's Word?

